When Hoover liked a word the FBI used it. Like "avid." He described the people he did not like as "avid." So the FBI called Ray "avid" in announcing the conspiracy charge on 4/17 and Ray adding him to the "Ten Most Wanted" list (which was the "Top Ten"). In each case Hoover personally approved the use of the word "avid."

Ray was an "avid reader" and an "avid reader" in all reports relating to these diversions
